My dear Mr Lorimer

As you will perceive by my telegram, it is the whole sum that is required. The £100 I have, no doubt will one day be returned to me, for it is for the use of my son Louis, who at this moment is in want of funds, though he has in hand a business of much importance but unfortunately dependant upon the Spanish Government, who are very tardy in making their payments

The £20 of the Bond you were so kind as to lend me last year, you will have the goodness to retain.

My three months pension is due on the 5th October; but as you you leave England on the 21st of this month, I suppose I must wait your return, unless you can make some other arrangement for me.

One day we will talk over your kind offer respecting the letters, it is not an affair to be decided hastily or without great need.

Give my love to your sister, with my most grateful thanks for her kind sympathy for me.

I remain Dear dear Mr Forman

Yours very sincerely

Fanny Keats de Llanos

Send me the letter of Mrs Wollaston Baton.
